the book: Musical Life, The Business of Music, Music as a Field of Knowledge, Music, Government, and Law. Each article is concisely written by an expert and provides a complete history of his topic for the century. It is most regrettable that space disallows full mention of each contributor and his chapter. The subjects are well chosen and their great variety of style and sure treatment of material make exhilarating reading. Frequent footnotes validate allusions to persons, works, and publications. The volume is also an excellent source book for research and general information on music in the United States.

The section treating with Government and Law is challenging. Its first chapter, "Government and the Arts," is by Representative Frank Thompson, Jr., co-sponsor of the Humphrey-Thompson Act of 1956 for federal action in favor of the arts. "We must," he states, "place more emphasis on the arts as an integral part of the educational process at all levels and with all age groups." He quotes Henry Kaiser, general counsel of the American Federation of Musicians, as to "the great big zero being expended by Uncle Sam on saving for our posterity the precious creative talents we have already demonstrated." In his article on "Copyright and the Creative Arts," Robert Burton, vice president of Broadcast Music, Inc., sounds a warning concerning what he calls "an example of how far behind the time our concepts are with respect to intellectual property and its protection." A concluding Epilogue by Hans W. Heinsheimer, Director of Publications for G. Schirmer, calmly wraps up the book with a recapitulation of its principal themes, major and minor, closing with a codetta on the Schirmer motive.

PHI IOTA INSTALLS EMINENT PATRON

△ PHI IOTA CHAPTER at Concordia College, Moorhead, Minnesota, was honored to install Dr. Don Gillis, American composer, as their patron. Dr. Gillis has made many distinguished contributions to American music. For several years he was producer of the NBC Symphony Orchestra, directed by Arturo Toscanini. Dr. Gillis has appeared frequently as guest conductor with many bands and orchestras. Recently he has been vice-president of the National Music Camp, Interlochen, Michigan, where he also has been Composer-in-Residence. In addition to compositions for orchestra, band, chorus and instrumental ensembles, he has written several one-act operas. These include The Park Avenue Kids, Pep Rally, The Bridal Suite, and The Libretto.

On March 5, 1962, the Phi Iota and Fargo Alumnae Chapters sponsored a lecture-discussion by Dr. Gillis. The occasion was made possible through the efforts of Laura Jane Musser, a member of the alumnae chapter, who also introduced him. Dr. Gillis discussed his opera, The Libretto, written for two singers and a small orchestra, and he played a tape recorded performance of the work. A reception was held in his honor in the Frida Nilsen Lounge at Concordia College.

Elizabeth Wrancher, Guest Artist with Alma Mater—Indiana University

Elizabeth Wrancher

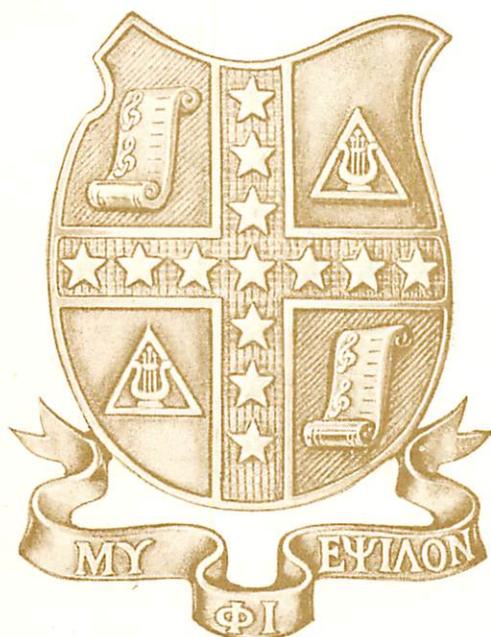

△ ELIZABETH WRANCHER, Epsilon Omicron initiate, graduated from University of Indiana where she studied voice with Mme. Dorothee Manski of the School of Music. In 1955, Elizabeth was sent to Germany on a Fulbright Scholarship for study at the Hochschule fur Musik in Munich for a period of one year. In 1956, she entered the International Radio Music Contest in Munich where she competed with over 200 singers from all over the world, and won first prize. Elizabeth was then persuaded to remain to do concert and radio work in Western Germany. Then, in 1959, she auditioned for the opera house in Detmold, Germany, and was immediately signed as leading soprano for two years. Receiving rave critics from newspapers in the area, her talents were soon recognized by other nearby opera houses and she was called on for numerous guest appearances in the Bielefeld and Hanover Opera Houses, in addition to her regular appearances with the Detmold Opera Company. To date, Elizabeth has appeared as guest artist in over thirty opera houses in Western Germany.

Elizabeth Wrancher returned to the United States this year for guest appearances with the Indiana University Opera Theater in Tosca and The Flying Dutchman. She will return to Europe next September to fulfill a two-year contract with the Stadtstheater in Augsburg, Germany.

Edna Pearson Concludes 40 Years of Church Music Ministry

△ EDNA LESLIE PEARSON, Eugene Alumnae Chapter, brought to a close a dedicated ministry in music after 40 years with Central Presbyterian Church in Eugene. One of Eugene's most loved choir directors, she looks back on the years with this comment: "My choir experiences are the golden links of life to me." Sacred music has always been a favorite with her and together with her choirs she set new standards of

MATTHEW E. WELSH
GOVERNOR

June 25, 1962

Members of Mu Phi Epsilon:

I regret that a prior engagement prevents me from welcoming you to the State of Indiana on the occasion of your National Convention.

Spheres of Music

I wakened and listened---I heard-----
Voices joining together in the early dawn
Man-made instruments blending in harmony
Inspired compositions of the composer's art
Songs of the wayfarer and the folkway
Thrilling strains of the Bridal Chorus
The measured sounds of the Funeral Dirge
The majestic chords of the ceremonial rites
The martial strains of our countries songs
The happy rhythms as we join in the dance
A Mother's lullaby singing a child to sleep
Children's voices raised in song
The gift from God of the artist's inspiration
The organized sound of the concord of sweet sounds
A living, changing language universally understood
The expression of our life's experience in sound
The touch of these on the disturbed and restless soul

These---These MYRIAD SOUNDS---I BELIEVE ARE---

BEAUX ARTS TRIO

DANIEL GUILLET - is almost equally famed in Europe and America as soloist and as chamber musician. Born in France, he attended the National Conservatory in Paris, studying and playing with Jacques Thibaud and Georges Enesco. He concertized on the continent, appearing with major orchestras and with chamber music groups before coming to the United States in 1941 where he organized a new Guilet Quartet which played throughout North and South America and Cuba. In 1944 he was chosen as a member of the NBC Symphony when it was created for Toscanini and in 1951 became Concertmaster. He has played as soloist under Toscanini, Perlea and Cantelli; given recitals in major cities of the United States; recorded for Concert Hall, Vox and Columbia records; and acclaimed as one of the finest soloist and ensemble musicians of our time. He plays the beautiful "Earl of Darnley" Stradivarius, dated 1712.

BERNARD GREENHOUSE - captured the attention of the music world when he made a 1946 Town Hall debut. A graduate of Julliard, he went to Europe in 1946 to study two years with Pablo Casals. He has won an enviable reputation as one of the major interpreters on his instrument, with appearances in major cities of both Europe and America in recital, with orchestra, with chamber music ensembles. He has recorded for Columbia, RCA Victor, Concert Hall and the American Recording Society. He is on the faculties of Julliard and Manhattan Schools of Music. He plays the famous "Visconti" Stradivarius cello, dated 1684.

MENAHEM PRESSLER - Associate Professor at the School of Music for the past four years. This brilliant, young Palestinian pianist was born in Magdeburg, Germany, but fled with his family to Israel when Hitler came into power. He began his professional career in his adopted country, and jumped to international prominence when he won the Debussy prize at the age of 17. Embarking on his first American tour, he was soloist five times with the Philadelphia Orchestra, and was awarded a three year contract for several appearances each season with that symphony. He has appeared with the New York Philharmonic, the Cleveland Symphony, Indianapolis Symphony, National Symphony in Washington, D.C. He has recorded for MGM Records. Three of the records have been selected among the "best of the year" by the New York Times. He returned from a European tour to join the initial tour of the Beaux Arts Trio.

"I BELIEVE IN MUSIC . . ."

I believe in Music, the noblest of all the arts, a source of much that is good, just, and beautiful; in Friendship, marked by love, kindness, and sincerity; and in harmony, the essence of a true and happy life. I believe in the sacred bond of Sisterhood, loyal, generous; and self-sacrificing, and its strength shall ever guide me in the path that leads upward toward the stars.
